

History Repeating?

Land Grabs and The Highland Clearances

ENOUGH FOOD FOR EVERYONE IF SCOTLAND PLAYS ITS PART

Timespan
Dunrobin Street, Helmsdale, Sutherland, KW8 6JX.

Monday, March 4, 2013. 1pm - 3.30pm

The Enough Food For Everyone IF Campaign is holding a major seminar highlighting the parallels between the Highland Clearances in Scotland and land grabs in developing countries.

2013 marks 200 years since the Sutherland Clearances, when large numbers of people were forced off the land they called home. But, right now, in developing countries an area of land bigger than Loch Ness is snapped up by foreign investors every five hours.

This seminar will discuss how Scottish history can influence the global debate on land rights in order to protect the world's poorest people.

Speakers include:

Humza Yousaf MSP, Scottish International Development Minister

Judith Robertson, Head of Oxfam Scotland

Jacque Aitken, archive officer, Timespan

This event is free but registration is required.
Please contact Sara Cowan on 0141 285 8874 or email:
scowan@oxfam.org.uk