

in partnership with

Angus Presbytery
Church & Society Committee

Grampian & Tayside

Give Creation a Chance

Saturday 22 March, 2014 in East and Old Church, Forfar

10 a.m.	Arrivals and tea/coffee
10.30 a.m.	Welcome and Opening Worship.
10.40 a.m.	The Integrity of Creation - Rev Malcolm Rooney A reflection on the way our use of the earth's resources affects climate change
11.00 a.m.	Workshop: 'One more step along the world I go' – Rev Jack Laidlaw 1) Considering carbon footprints, their make-up and size followed by 2) a sharing of ideas on the costs and choices in trying to be eco- friendly.
12.00 noon	Closing Worship
12.15 p.m.	Reflecting Together over a Sandwich Lunch

Chair Person: David Adams is the convener of Angus Presbytery, Church and Society Committee.

Speaker: Rev Malcolm Rooney is the Minister of the Glens and Kirriemuir Old Parish.

Workshop: Rev Jack Laidlaw is a member of the Iona Community.

£6 per person will cover accommodation, teas/coffees and a sandwich lunch.

Participants can contribute to the costs of the event on arrival at the meeting.

REGISTRATION

It will help us in organising the meeting, particularly the catering, if you tell us you intend to come.

Send an email by 18 March to jacklaidlaw@blueyonder.co.uk head it ECO –MEETING, Forfar 22 March and include your name(s) and congregation or group of which you are part. (Mention any special dietary needs.)

.....
Or Post this form

ECO-MEETING, Forfar 22 March 2014

Name(s) of participant _____

Congregation _____ Note any dietary needs _____

Send to Jack Laidlaw, 14 Dalhousie Road, Broughty Ferry, Dundee DD5 2SQ by 18 March, 2014