

Eco-Congregation Scotland
Moray Network

Energy Use in Church Buildings

Most of our church buildings were never designed to conserve energy. What can we do to save energy and reduce fuel costs? Anne Thomas, from Hilton Parish Church, Inverness, explains how they have used available grants to improve insulation, install solar panels and other energy saving measures to reduce their carbon footprint and save money in their church buildings.

Tuesday 3rd June 2014
7.30 pm

Spynie Kirk
by Elgin IV30 8XJ

All very welcome!

For further information, contact: Rev Jenny Adams
jennyadamsbd@gmail.com or 01343 830276