

Eco-Congregation Scotland Edinburgh Network Event

Taking a Stroll on the John Muir Way

Join Trevor Jamison, Eco Congregation Chaplain, for a gentle stroll along part of the Innocent Railway path. As well as taking in the scenery Trevor will be sharing with the walkers some his reflections on walking the John Muir Way, from Helensburgh to Dunbar, including this stretch of the Innocent Railway.

How might John Muir, a Scottish-born, pioneering American environmentalist, who used the language of religion, speak to us today? How might he help us speak to the wider world?

Meet at the Holyrood Park Road entrance to Holyrood Park (near the Commonwealth Pool) at 6.30 p.m. on Monday 18th August.

Everyone is welcome to come along.

For further information contact
manager@ecocongregationscotland.org

