

Wednesday 19th April 2017

7.45pm

Braeport Centre

Adrian Shaw

Climate Change Officer,

Church of Scotland

Alistair Runcie

former engineer with BP

ENERGY & THE ENVIRONMENT -
SCOTLAND'S FUTURE

The future energy needs of Scotland and the different sources such as renewables and fracking. The topic of fracking will introduce a discussion on the divestment from fossil fuel companies and reinvestment in renewables and social housing.

Tuesday 25th April 2017

7.30pm

Dunblane Cathedral Hall

David Bethune

Programme co-ordinator,
Eco-Congregation Scotland

CLIMATE CHANGE AND JUSTICE

The current situation with regard to climate change, its impacts on the world's rich and poor and what actions we can realistically take as individuals and churches in response

Tuesday 2nd May 2017

7.30pm

Dunblane Cathedral Hall

Ian Bradley, Head of Practical
Theology at St Andrews University

Rev Colin Renwick, Minister at Dunblane Cathedral.

"GOD IS GREEN" -
CARING FOR CREATION

Theological aspect regarding the duty of care for nature and all creation.

...
...
... We extend a very warm welcome ...
... to everyone who would like to ...
... join us for this series of ...
... discussions. Each evening will ...
... provide an opportunity to listen ...
... and ask questions, to consider ...
... and discuss as well as to share a ...
... cup of tea or coffee. ...
...
...

 Dunblane Cathedral
Thinking Allowed
Eco Congregation

Wednesday 19th April 2017
7.45pm
Braeport Centre

ENERGY & THE ENVIRONMENT -
SCOTLAND'S FUTURE

Tuesday 25th April 2017
7.30pm
Dunblane Cathedral Hall

CLIMATE CHANGE AND JUSTICE

Tuesday 2nd May 2017
7.30pm
Dunblane Cathedral Hall

“GOD IS GREEN”
CARING FOR CREATION

Dunblane Cathedral Church of Scotland is a Registered
Scottish Charity: Number SC004454