

FACING THE REALITY OF A Changing CLIMATE

AS PEOPLE OF HOPE, HOW CAN WE RESPOND?

KATHARINE HAYHOE, EVANGELICAL CHRISTIAN, CLIMATE SCIENTIST,
ONE OF FORTUNE'S 50 WORLD'S GREATEST LEADERS

Climate change is one of today's most hotly debated issues. But is the evidence solid? And what does it mean for us as people of faith? Come to this unique discussion between two world-leading experts, both of Christian faith.

Dr. Katharine Hayhoe, evangelical Christian, was named as one of TIME Magazine's 100 Most Influential People in the World. Her associations include the UN IPCC, and she introduced Leonardo Di Caprio's Before the flood film with President Obama. Professor Alastair McIntosh, a Quaker, is Scotland's celebrated author and human ecologist. Chaired by leading international mediator John Sturrock QC.
