

Glasgow Presbytery

World Mission
Committee

Caring for God's Creation

a free seminar for congregations

Saturday 3rd March • 1 - 4pm • Springburn Parish Church

Presentation on eco-congregation Scotland and why congregations
should be involved

Choice of two workshops including:

Greening your church buildings
(James Anthony, Eco-congregations)

Going for an eco-award
(David Bethune, Eco-congregations)

Engaging your politicians on environmental matters
(Irene McKinnon, Scottish Churches Parliamentary Office)

Fossil fuels and finance
(Adrian Shaw, Church of Scotland Climate Change Officer)

Register FREE with the Presbytery Office:

glasgow@churchofscotland.org.uk / 0141 332 6606

Getting there

By train: the church is opposite Springburn railway station. By bus: The 88 bus leaves Buchanan Bus Station every 10 minutes and stops at the back of the church. By car: There is ample car parking around the church.