Thinking about the total connectedness and interdependence of Creation

Rev David Coleman in preparation for a service for

1) Sustaining embrace the vine and the tree exhaling the air
inspiring for me:
the air is made heaven
by fluttering birds connected and rooted and fruitful the Earth.

3) Hope fills up our hearts as fish to the sea
as worms to the soil and yeast to our bread
As fungi to dead things and wine to new life
the cycles of kin-dom's renewal are rife.

4) So never deny
the truth of earth's pain nor arrogantly claim your well won't run dry when streams are diverted and all creatures choke:
take notice, make changes:
it's Christ who awoke!
